

Paediatric Speech and Language Therapists – Band 6/7 equivalent (AfC)

Salary range £35K-£45K dependent upon qualifications and experience

Required from September 2019

We are looking for committed and enthusiastic SLTs to work as part of the transdisciplinary team at our senior site. You will work with a specialist caseload of pupils with specific learning difficulties. You will need to have an independent approach and demonstrate a working knowledge of standardised assessment and clinical observation. You will show developing clinical reasoning skills in relation to the delivery of therapy programmes and reporting. Experience with pupils within secondary education would be an advantage. You will need to work closely alongside specialist teachers and OT therapists - and be able to integrate SLT goals into an educational setting. We would expect you to have - knowledge of clinical assessment, treatment planning and implementing paediatric therapy programmes.

We offer a generous CPD package, encourage therapists to take OCR 5, salary is dependent upon qualifications and experience, a generous pension scheme, and free school lunch.

Fairley House School is London's leading day school for children with Specific Learning Difficulties, aged 5 to 16.

Our ethos is to transform the lives of children with specific learning difficulties by providing a first class education that robustly and intensively addresses their needs. Education is tailored to the needs of the individual child and is delivered through a trans-disciplinary approach by teachers, therapists and assistants with an understanding of, and expertise in, specific learning difficulties.
