

Fairley House Assessment Centre

Sessional Educational Psychologist

Salary: £600 per session (max of 2 sessions a day)

Fairley House Assessment Centre is part of the well renowned Fairley House School, an independent special school for pupils from 6 to 16 with Specific Learning Differences. The centre offers Educational Psychology assessments to children from outside the school to ensure that children with Specific Learning Differences receive a first-class assessment that will effectively guide intervention in their own school.

Fairley House Assessment Centre is looking for experienced and fully qualified Educational Psychologists to undertake sessional cognitive and attainment-based assessments. Each assessment takes approximately 2.5 hours and is conducted using Q-Interactive, in our Centre based in SW1, followed by a one hour parental feedback meeting. Reports must be written and supplied within 2 weeks from the date of the assessment and written clearly and concisely including formulation and recommendations for each child's own school and parents.
